7. Animal Welfare: In recognition of minimum standards of animal welfare the IPE requires each Exhibitor to maintain their pens in a neat & clean state throughout the fair. Animals must be fed & watered regularly & adequately. If you are unable to provide the care yourself, please make arrangements for someone else to look after your herd in your absence. Failure to keep animals in a reasonable state of appearance or provision may result in entries not being accepted the following year, upon the recommendation of the Goat Division Committee. If an animal is visibly ill or injured, the IPE reserves the right to arrange veterinary services at the expense of the herd owner, upon the recommendation of the Goat Division Committee, or the management of the IPE. Such services are payable upon provision. Outstanding fees for veterinary services will be deducted from prize money, or other efforts to collect will be made.
